He Is Found In Tranquility

Psalm 47:10 says: "Be still and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth." In strolling through the woods, sitting by a lake, or gazing at the stars one is involved in reflecting upon the beauty of God's creation. All of these actions require a certain stillness, a quietness of the soul to truly appreciate the Person and the Work of the Creator. To know God better, a person turns from the business of his daily life, and takes time to worship the true God — the powerful, almighty Creator — God.

One who has been a college student can cite specific events as to what constitutes a basic day on a college campus. Classes and studies occupy a major portion of one's time. Extracurricular activities are considered important for they provide opportunities in which to become better acquainted with classmates, roommates, and future mates?! Yet, there is a time set aside for "getting away" — whether it be to John Bryan State Park, Indian Mound, or wherever — just to enjoy the beauty of the outdoors.

It is to the aspect of the free time, the quiet time, that the 1977 MIRACLE Staff seeks to expand and develop the student's life. A busy world, a turning world . . . in it we find God to be the still point.

College Week Is A Break From Tradition

Trying something new this year, the administration of Cedarville College institutes College Week, at which time no classes are held during the entire week. Fall Bible Conference is held at the beginning of the school year during new student orientation. Two speakers with diverse backgrounds herald the truths of God's Word in the beautiful new chapel. Rev. David Jeremiah, pastor of the Blackhawk Baptist Church in Fort Wayne, Indiana speaks on "Success as a Christian". Delivering his message on "The Holy Spirit" is Dr. Truman Dollar, pastor of the Kansas City Baptist Temple in Missouri. Along with attending meetings, students are kept busy with registration, an all-school social, question/answer session with several trustees, a bonfire, soccer game, and dorm meetings.

1. Diana Rae and Kris Anderson help to serve tacos during a get-together for new students.

2. Returning college students listen intently to one of the first sermons in the new chapel.

3. Terry Broach and Sherri Jones share a happy moment at the all-school picnic held on the first Saturday back at school.

4. Two freshmen discover that blindfolded may not be the neatest way to eat, but it sure is a lot of fun!

5. David and Jim Jeremiah enjoy a light moment with their father, who proves that the President of the college can laugh too!

6. Debbie Dixon, Barry Heagy, and Marlene Bleeker scan the SBP Book Sale for a special bargain.

7. Barton Case performs the familiar task of crossing off his chapel number, with the ever-patient help of Deb Blackburn and Sheryle Tichenor.

8. President Jeremiah and Dr. Truman Dollar pass the time of day after a chapel service.

Various Events Characterize Homecoming

The Cedarville College campus buzzes with activity as the Homecoming events take place October 15, 16, and 17, a chilly, but sunny weekend. Many alumni, parents, and visitors along with students, faculty, and staff participate to make the 1976 Homecoming a success. The weekend consists of various activities, beginning with the dedication of the new chapel. The bonfire and pep rally are held at the lakeside where Lynn Beck is crowned the 1976 Homecoming Queen.

1. Shortly after the Homecoming parade, visitors and students are entertained by a concert on the lawn.

2. In Cedarville tradition, a parachutist brings the game ball, landing mid-field.

3. Homecoming at Cedarville means SOCCER as Joe Jenkins demonstrates.

4. Younger guests on campus are intrigued by the friendly "Peanuts" characters and Uncle Sam.

5. Mark Sigmon, Doug Wing, John Walborn, and Bob Rogers provide some of that "good-ole" barbershop singing.

6. Cindi Porter demonstrates that a rose in the mouth is worth two in the bush.

7. The 1976 Homecoming Court; Paulette Donaldson, Senior; Becky Selden, Junior; Judi Riter, Sophomore; and Darlene Repp, Freshman.

8. Clowns, Mrs. Grosh and daughter, Jenny, show one way to travel the parade route.

9. With that friendly smile, how could anyone lose? 1976 Homecoming Queen, Lynn Beck.

A parade, with the theme reflecting the Bicentennial, is held Saturday morning and proves to be the best ever. In the Homecoming soccer game, the Jackets battle Denison University, going into overtime, but still ending in a scoreless stalemate. Other activities, such as the Cedarville Cross Country Invitational and the performance of various music groups on the campus lawn, highlight the weekend, making it a Homecoming that will long be remembered.

1. Homecoming at Cedarville also means the annual Cross Country Invitational.
2. What is a parade without a marching band?
3. Something has caught this little guy's attention.
4. Cedar Cliff's orchestra serenades the Homecoming crowd.
5. The 1976 Homecoming is made more meaningful by the dedication of the new chapel.
6. Minnie Mouse makes an appearance at the parade.
7. Martha Sprano reveals the essence of Homecoming — reminiscing with old friends.
8. The relationship of yellowjackets to flowers was the Junior Class'way of demonstrating interdependence.

Students Of Cedarville Go Political

It is time once again to choose the President of Cedar What, a mock election held in conjunction with the national elections. Running this year for the Conservative Party are Dr. James Phipps and Dr. Jack Riggs. Challenging them are the Liberalists, headed by Dr. Al Monroe and Dr. David Matson. Fighting for women's rights to vote, a third party called the Liberty Belles and led by Dr. Sharon Biddle and Mrs. Pat Dixon is organized. Tension mounts during the week of November 8-13 as each candidate campaigns for his party. Political rallies are held every morning in front of the Student Center Gym Building. The candidates offer the students everything, including moustaches! The anticipated day finally comes — the day when the students vote for their favorite candidate. On November 13 at 6:30 p.m. the Cedar

1. Uncle Al, surrounded by a squadron of his "secret service men," rallies support.
2. The blue and gold uniforms of Monroe supporters become a familiar sight.
3. Anarchist Guy Felmlee is caught while attempting to blow up the ad building.
4. April Brazelton and John Dailey break a wishbone to determine the outcome of the election.
5. Ringing a bell is Dr. Sharon Biddle — her spokes "person" is Pat Dixon.
6. Lori LaHaye and Lydia West exhibit "spirit-controlled temperaments".
7. Affected by the cry for Tender Loving Care, faculty women join Biddle's Belles.
8. The banquet is the last place to campaign before the election.
9. The Conservatives demonstrate that civil disobedience must be punished by hanging Guy Felmlee.
10. Evidence of Biddle activity, shown by Dr. Riggs, reveals their work.
11. Monroe campaign manager, Tim Pasma, suffers severe wounds from a shoot-out with Phipps' manager, Mike Cuffman.
12. A plea for a "Grass Roots in Government" is echoed by Dr. Phipps.

What Banquet, sponsored by Alpha Chi, begins. Each of those attending the banquet are escorted into the gymnasium and are taken to a table designated as one of the original thirteen colonies. After everyone is seated, a welcome speech by the President of Alpha Chi, Chuck Elliott, begins the banquet. The meal is served, and following it, a demonstration for women suffrage begins in the back of the gym. The women are refused the right to vote. Action is taken by the members of the Liberty Belles, and the male Presidential candidates are abducted! A compromise is made, and the candidates are returned, at which time the vote for the next Cedar What President is taken. After a show of hands by the students, Dr. Al Monroe and Dr. David Matson of the Liberalist Party are announced as the new President and Vice-President, respectively, of Cedar What. The Liberals give a victory speech, but Dr. James Phipps of the losing Conservative Party has the last word: "I hope you get what you got!"

1. Dr. Biddle is aghast when handcuffed.
2. A group of loyal supporters make their preference known.
3. A grim-faced dummy hangs from the S.C.G.
4. Black-robed choir members, a sign of the Conservative Party, cry for women to "repent" and stay out of politics.
5. Uncle Al is frequently heard campaigning.
6. The banquet is not the typical Cedarville banquet, where dates quietly discuss the classes they are taking. Quite contrary, one must yell to be heard.
7. The brass band becomes a sign of Dr. Monroe's appearance.
8. Is this the true Dr. Johnson?
9. It becomes necessary to use guns to maintain law and order.
10. While the band plays Daniel Boone's theme song, Dr. Phipps plays his part.

Women Organize Social Activities

Cedarville women took an active part in this year's Cedar What elections by appointing their own women candidates. The clubs involved in this escapade were Gamma Zeta Theta and Gamma Chi.

Through a variety of social and service activities, Gamma Zeta Theta attempts to promote the true image of womanhood as they live for God. The women seek to develop their Christian personality and leadership through the many projects and speakers scheduled throughout the year.

The President's Wife's Tea, weekend retreats, and their annual spring banquet are just a few of the many activities sponsored by Gamma Chi. Through these events the organization seeks to develop poise and ease at both formal and informal gatherings. Their ultimate goal is to become "Women for Christ".

5. Debbie Hattenfield and Brenda McBride do their share to make the Gamma Chi banquet a success.

6. "Professional" carpenters were hired to make the props for the banquet.

Talent Night Hosts New Students

With a variety of talent ranging from gospel songs to dramatical skits, the decision as to the winner of the 1976 New Student Talent Night is a difficult one to make. Nevertheless, a comical arrangement of "Billy Goats Gruff" presented by John Briggs, Gus Chamberlain, Craig Colas, and Kent McDougal steals the show and is awarded first place. A musical group consisting of Scott Bahorik, Bill Carroll, and Brad Milbauer wins second place with their numbers, "Annie's Song" and "Bridge Over Troubled Waters". Joel Veldt's humorous dramatization of "Frontier Mortician" wins third prize.

1. John Briggs, Gus Chamberlain, Craig Colas and Kent McDougal win with their version of "Billy Goats Gruff."
2. Faith Grahl and Carolyn Huffman Singing their song, "Sisters."
3. Joel Veldt places third with an oral interpretation of "Frontier Mortician."
4. "I Won't Last A Day Without You" is a solo sung by Dawn Curtis.
5. Hostess and Host for the Talent Night are Angela Hilmes and Barry Heagy.
6. Allen Woodruff presents a tumbling routine.
7. Mike Bentley, Dean Scott and Carl Zelonis listen as "Uncle" Russ Yoder tells a bedtime story.
8. Scott Bahorik, Bill Carroll and Brad Milbauer perform "Annie's Song" and "Bridge Over Troubled Water."

Swordbearers Have Active Year

Swordbearers 1976-77 have a year of many "firsts". This year's teams possess more new members than the teams of recent school years, which makes for an excellent cross-section of the college. The teams seem to travel more — West Virginia, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Kentucky, and New York are some of the states visited by the teams.

One of the first major events is the Swordbearers Fall Conference, in which youth groups from all over the Mid-West participate. Another highlight of the year is the presentation of the missionary cantata, "Go Tell Your World", directed by Kathy Howell.

1. BACK ROW: T. Stoner (team leader), N. Benson, K. Browne. SECOND ROW: E. Smith, L. Matheny, M. Bleeker, S. Bahorik, S. Levin. FRONT ROW: K. Sewell, L. Benson, C. Ray, G. McMillan, D. Kirk.

2. BACK ROW: D. Morton, M. Bentley (team leader). THIRD ROW: G. Stone, D. Storch, E. Wyse, B. Henslin. SECOND ROW: B. Taylor, D. Rae, K. Willhite. FRONT ROW: P. Van der Hoeven, D. Repp, P. Moling, S. Miller.

3. Extension Team: BACK ROW: D. Burns, B. Kaufman, T. Chmura. FRONT ROW: B. Roloff, R. Rogers, S. Mesner, C. Powers.

4. BACK ROW: B. Hayes, D. Aeshleman, D. Green. THIRD ROW: S. Strock, D. Evens, D. Blackburn. SECOND ROW: C. Miller, D. Burns (team leader), C. Phillips, D. Messenger. FRONT ROW: J. Hoffer, K. Sollenne, J. Butcher.

5. Visiting high school students to the Swordbearers Conference load up on food.

6. A sea of faces listens intently to a conference speaker.

7. Participants in the Fall Conference include Chairman Dave Lyons, Pastor Green, Dr. Ballard, and Mark Sigmon.

8. New people are met even when the high schoolers register.

7. And Steve Boalt at the microphone.
8. The Ohio State Men's Glee Club keeps the audience awake the whole evening.

Soccer Team Is District 22 Champion

For the 1976-77 year, the Jackets once again displayed why they are one of the top ten teams in Ohio. They flaunted a defense that permitted opponents a meager one goal per game. This led them to a compilation of a 10-4-1 record. With the record-setting defense functioning, the Jackets often had close, low-scoring games, with the difference in scores being only one goal. Tom Benefiel's ten goals led the offense, which demolished teams in the first half of the season, but could not maintain the pace for the remainder. Once again, Cedarville is District #22 Champion and goes to Spring Arbor for regionals. There they lose in six overtimes, ending their bid for nationals. Cedarville loses nine Seniors, which is most of the starting line-up, but Coach McGillivray looks for a good season next year with his underclassmen.

1. Goalie Ron Clark awaits a shot which is partially deflected by Warren Gifford.
2. The pursuit of Tom Benefiel and Dave Stoner is thwarted by Wittenberg's goalie.
3. Evandro Batista never ceases to add excitement to the game.
4. MVP Ken Howard and Dave Stoner congratulate each other after a Cedarville win.
5. Fullback Warren Allen plays despite his broken arm.
6. Tom Cook tangles with an opponent over control of the ball.
7. Captain Don Hare lofts a pass downfield.
8. Coach McGillivray discusses an upcoming strategy.
9. A header by Tom Benefiel makes the opponents cringe.
10. Warren Gifford concentrates on the ball despite the opposition's tactics.

1. Evandro Batista prepares to cross the ball to the right wing.
2. Don Hare seeks to maintain possession against a Wittenberg defender.
3. Right wing Dave Stoner would be helpless without the use of his tongue.
4. Joe Jenkins feints left and passes right to a fellow Jacket.
5. Leading scorer Tom Benefiel puts a little finesse in his move.
6. The soccer ball, die Fusbol, el Futbol.
7. Don Bartemus makes a mid-air return of a kick by the opposition.
8. Merle Ziegler outdistances his opponent and regains control of the ball.
9. The 1976 Jackets were 10-4-1 on the year:

All-American Heads Cross Country

The story for the cross country squad this year is Brian Hull. Brian wins seven meets and clearly dominates NAIA competition in the state of Ohio. He outdistances the field in the District #22 meet and places 20th at the NAIA National meet which is good enough to earn All-American honors — and he is still a sophomore in eligibility.

The squad is not merely a one-man show, though, as Senior Paul Budnik, Freshman Dale Shaw, and Senior Ron Thomas, all turn in strong performances. The Jackets as a team combine to win the Earlham Invitational, the NCCAA District 3 meet, and place third in the national NCCAA meet.

With Hull and Shaw back next year, as well as the addition of Henslin, Colas, and Yater, Cedarville looks to be extremely strong, and hopes to battle with Malone and Rio Grande for a berth to nationals.

1. Joel Gehrke, Bruce Henslin, and Steve Crymble "psych-up" before the race.
2. The 1976 Cross Country team: FRONT ROW: Ron Thomas, Paul Budnik; BACK ROW: Coach King, Bruce Henslin, Brian Hull, Craig Colas, Dale Shaw.
3. Brian Hull and Dale Shaw dress down and flash pre-meet smiles.
4. Victorious in the meet, Ron Thomas, Brian Hull, and Paul Budnik cross the finish line hand-in-hand.
5. Brian Hull accepts his All-American honors at the banquet after the NAIA National meet.
6. Jacket runners hold on to their lead as they round Cedar Lake.
7. Mark Shaver finishes 'he tiresome five mile course.
8. Coach King updates team scoring at a home meet.

Jackettes Cop OVL Crown

Old records fall this season for the Jackettes as they compile the best record in the history of Cedarville's field hockey program. For the first time, they win the Ohio Valley League Championship. They score the most goals in the school's history, and they beat the University of Dayton for the first time. They also hold the State Champs of 1975, Ohio Wesleyan, scoreless in a 0-0 tie. The team credits their success to attending a hockey camp in Brooklyn, Michigan, where skills, plays, and teamwork are all sharpened to a winning combination. They also feel that the unity, desire, and testimony of the team helps, in addition to the hard work and influence of their coaches, Dr. Maryalyce Jeremiah and Pat Davis. With the team only losing two members to graduation, the Jackettes will try to improve their 4-3-1 record in next year's competition.

1. With determination evident on her face, Sue Kuntzelman dribbles down the field.
2. During the University of Dayton game, Mary Harris and Barbara Roth try to keep the ball in Cedarville territory.
3. Andy MacDermaid sends the ball into the circle on a corner.
4. The 1976 Field Hockey Team: FIRST ROW: D. Selden, C. Castle, D. Marvin, N. Towle — co-captain, A. MacDermaid — co-captain, S. Kuntzelman, B. Roth, K. Frey. SECOND ROW: Coach M. Jeremiah, L. Donnelly, B. Selden, L. Risser, J. Jacobitz, D. Moore, K. Gall, C. Anderson, S. Kulp, M. Harris, C. Carey, K. Bunton — manager.
5. Team members congratulate Nancy Towle after a successful goal.
6. Cindy Castle and Diane Moore tackle a player from the University of Dayton's offense.
7. During a freezing half-time, Coach Jeremiah gives the necessary incentive and determination to defeat the University of Cincinnati team.

Spikers Net Twenty-One Wins

With a record of 21 wins and 12 losses, this year's varsity team has its best season in the history of Cedarville College. Regrettably, the team is not able to participate in State competition due to a mix-up. For the first time, however, they are invited to the Earlham Tournament. They completely overwhelm the other competitors, which results in a first place win, making this the highlight of the season.

This year's captains are Roni Crum and Judie Cross. Next year's prospects look good in spite of the loss of Roni Crum, Becky DeLancey, Denice DeMars, and Jo Priola. The J.V. team is coached by Elaine Brown, a player — coach. Their season record is 3 wins and 6 losses. Several strong players emerge which will make promising additions to next year's varsity team.

1. Strategy and advice is given by the coach while the team meets in a huddle.
2. Judie Cross sets the ball for the impending spike.
3. The players stress good sportsmanship, regardless of the outcome.
4. Roni Crum clenches her fists in a tense moment.
5. Gazing intently, Jo Priola watches her team in action.
6. The J.V. Team: BACK ROW: C. Lancaster, N. Snook, K. Turner, E. Brown, L. Penquite, Dr. Kearney; FRONT ROW: L. Bruening, S. Taylor, P. Holmes, D. Sands, J. Priola.
7. Racing for the ball, Rachel Norton gets there in time.
8. Brenda Hobar takes a drink before re-entering the game.
9. The Varsity Team: BACK ROW: C. Lancaster, R. Norton, B. DeLancey, V. Totman, E. Brown, Dr. Kearney; FRONT ROW: D. DeMars, B. Hobar, R. Crum, J. Cross, M. Park, J. Priola
10. A well-executed set by Denise DeMars makes the next point possible.

Fall Intramurals Boast Several New Activities

Intramurals have always been an integral part of college life here at the 'Ville. This year Rob Seymour has done an excellent job in providing sports opportunities to a full capacity. In the fall, flag football dominates the scene. Off-campus captures the crown with an undefeated season, beating Upper Williams in a closely contested, well-played finale.

For the first time, a cross-country run is offered, and Warren Gifford trots off with top honors. Womens' volleyball is also a major part of the program this year, with a tournament and league play offered for the ladies.

1. Steve Stairs staunchly defends his quarterback, Carl Zelonis.
2. Even teammates flinch when Joyce Klamm returns a shot.
3. The determination of Steve Stairs causes Cal Searles to think quickly.
4. With his back to the camera, Steve Stump runs his pattern, awaiting a pass from Cal Searles.
5. With the ball tucked away, Wes Rowe looks for opposition up- field.
6. Kathy Kearby displays her patented "lightning" serve.
7. Deb Stahl calmly spikes a volley.
8. The Carr offense lines up for a play, with Steve Uyenishi in command.

New Faces Line The Hallways

Returning upperclassmen are greeted by 412 bright and shining new faces, known as the Freshman Class. The freshmen invade the campus and are influential in making history for the 1977 school year. Tradition is broken as they did not have the "opportunity" to go through initiation. The class sponsors many activities of which the biggest event is Evacuation Weekend held in February. During the freezing cold winter, they enjoy swimming in an indoor- heated pool at Hueston Woods. Money making events include selling "Cedarville" pens and freshman class shirts.

1. Mike O'Quinn and Jeff Waldo are lulled to sleep by Brahms.
2. Her wainful look is a sure sign of an empty mailbox.

Activities Spark Sophomore Year

A major disappointment confronts the sophomores during the first week of fall quarter: the abolition of Freshman Initiation. As an alternative, the sophs originate "Frosh Game Night", giving the freshmen a chance to get acquainted with the sophomores and each other.

Taking first prize in the float competition of the 1976 Homecoming Parade starts the Class of '79 off on their sophomore year with a positive attitude. The sophomores, under the leadership of President John Potter, boldly plan a schedule including swim nights, bowling parties, roller skating and various money-making projects.

1. A small stuffed turtle becomes a "new friend" to Mike Shaver, but it won't be much company at the next banquet!

2. Ellen Redinger takes a "snooze break" during her cramming session.

4. Paul Edwards — you may eat letters in Australia, but in America we read them!

Students Show Concern For Children

A new Christian service has sprouted on this campus; a puppet ministry. It is called "The Master's Muppets." This group goes from church to church, youth rally to youth rally, witnessing to others through a puppet show.

The AM group participating in the Old Soldiers and Sailors Orphanage Christian service are about twenty-five students in number. They assemble every Sunday morning at 8:30 to teach. The PM O.S.S.O. group meets at 6:00 every Sunday night. At the home, they greet the kids, sing, have devotions with them and special music is presented by one or more college students.

1. Judy Brown brings the Gospel to a young boy at the O.S.&S.O. home.
2. Behind the scenes are Dale Christian, Bill Carroll, and Floyd Dallas.
3. O.S.&S.O. Morning: FRONT ROW: B. Prentice, T. Danec, J. Marihugh, D. Groves, J. Brown, D. Kelso; BACK ROW: T. Shubert, D. Burns, T. Williams, P. Schnell, B. Humphrey, D. Johnson, F. Polley, T. Yater, J. Patton.
4. O.S.&S.O. Evening: BACK ROW: J. Ward, G. Hinkle, C. Jones, M. Johnson, D. Conrad, S. Browne, S. Glover; THIRD ROW: C. Searles, J. Yoder, S. Jenkins, K. Lapp, E. Shaffer, N. Linamen, R. Northcutt, T. Davis, D. Bond, S. Browning, C. Hall, D. Messenger; SECOND ROW: V. Burleson, C. Scoggins, C. Douglass, J. Moore, B. Guenther, J. Callan, C. Olson, K. Payne, D. Bresson, T. Broach, J. 6. "Cowboy" Dale Christian tells a story from the old west.
7. The puppets not only entertain both young and old, but also relate Bible stories in a new and interesting way.
8. Bill Humphrey leads a Bible study with a group of boys at the O.S.&S.O. home.

Students Minister To Young And Old

Bible clubs are held weekly in Christian homes. Activities at the meetings vary between groups. Each club usually has a time for songs, Bible memorization, and a Bible story is always told. They also have Bible drills, games and sometimes refreshments after the meeting.

Cedarville College students journey weekly to visit six area rest homes. These homes range from beautiful private homes to state-supported county homes. The groups usually have a short service and then spend the rest of the time visiting the people from room-to-room.

1. Helen Vassari asks questions to see if her students understand the day's lesson.

2. Rest Homes: BACK ROW: R. Peterson, J. Bean, R. Shedden, D. Sanderlin, W. Throckmorton, N. Abels, C. Radcliff, L. Patton, M. Filmer, P. Harrison, M. Martens, P. Gettle, J. Kiser, R. Smith, R. Terlouw, L. Miller, T. Baker, C. Lofgren, M. Smith, K. Glassey, D. Rogers, D. Denny.

3. After the Bible story, a child works on a small craft project.

4. Bible Club: P. Gilbert, K. Houmes, P. Dersham, H. Vassari, B. Sininger, D. Hunn, L. Jones, D. Festag, B. McKee, J. Wagner.

5. Getting to know one of the patients is Karen Haga.

6. Chris Lofgren greets one of the ladies at the rest home.

Students' Outreach Includes All

Each week a large number of students travel to area detention homes and jails to tell boys and girls, men and women about Jesus and His love. There are three detention homes that students visit: Dayton Detention Home, Springfield Detention Home, and the Troy Rehabilitation Center. These ministries are good opportunities for Cedarville students to put into practice what they are learning from Bible classes and studies.

1. While at breakfast, Byron Major listens to instructions before leaving for the Dayton Detention Home.
2. The Springfield Detention Home group prays before leaving.
3. Springfield Detention Home: FRONT ROW: C. James, I. Taylor, E. Parker, E. Engdahl, G. Bushart, L. LaHaye, L. Yater; BACK ROW: D. Riddle, L. Lathrop, D. LaRue, S. Hoy, A. Morgan, D. Robery, D. Ellington, J. Arthur, K. Erny, M. Nelson, K. Amstutz.
4. Troy Detention Home: D. LaRue, J. Wyman, W. Rowe, M. Peters.
5. Dayton Detention Home: FRONT ROW: C. Morley, A. Hilmes, S. Kuntzelman, K. Sollenne, J. Nace; SECOND ROW: C. Zelonis, D. Lawrence, D. Wetzel, B. Neally, J. Kaufman, C. Morris, M. Waddle, M. Forsten, L. Aitken; BACK ROW: B. Major, S. Stairs, R. Campbell, P. Smith, D. Riedel, A. Ross.
6. Carl Zelonis prepares for service at the Dayton Detention Home.
7. Jail Service: M. Shaw, S. Rowland, T. Rowland.

Being Earnest Is Important

"The Importance of Being Earnest," a hilarious farce written by Oscar Wilde, is performed on January 13, 14, and 15. An all-freshman cast under the direction of Myron Youngman strive to produce the satire of the Victorian period, stressing the witty scenes and dialogue. Included in the cast are: Jim Leightenheimer, John Briggs, Gregory Howe, Guthrie Chamberlain, Mike O'Quinn, Ginny Decker, Katie Osborne, Lori LaHaye, and Patty Slusher.

1. Ginny Decker enters with a sweep of the hand and a twist of the bustle.
2. Katie Osborne whispers to Jim Leightenheimer: "Do you wear contacts?"
3. Only John Briggs' hairdresser knows for sure . . .
4. John Briggs and Lori LaHaye discuss "Earnest's" life in the city.
5. Jim Leightenheimer and John Briggs argue over the one teacake that is left.
6. Guthrie Chamberlain sets for tea.
7. Myron Youngman, director, gives last minute instructions to the cast.
8. Even Miss Prism finds love in the play, "The Importance of Being Earnest".

Conference Is Held Despite Weather

Each year the missionary conference is organized by Fellowship of World Missions, a campus group praying specifically for missionaries.

During the week of January 16-20, the temperature drops to a low of -21°, and for the first time in Cedarville's history girls wear slacks to the conference. Ninety-six percent of Cedarville's student body voluntarily sacrifices breakfast and lunch in the college cafeteria on Hunger Day to aid victims of the recent flood in Assam, India.

The conference hosts four speakers, including Kay Lamb of Campus Bible Fellowship; Dan Lacey, missionary to the Spanish-speaking people in Florida, and Vernon Weber, missionary in the Dominican Republic. All are from B.M.M. William Hopewell represents A.B.W.E. as Deputation Secretary.

1. Kay Lamb exchanges a few words with a passing student.
2. "Reaching Those Who Have Not Heard" is the theme of this year's conference, which is carried out by a chorus written by Dennis Hinks.
3. Kay Lamb chats with students in the library.
4. Is Vernon Webber telling Judi Riter and Jeff Warix a joke?
5. Dan Lacey gets acquainted with Dr. Callan.
6. F.W.M.: FRONT ROW: S. Holma, L. McClure, C. Lofgren, D. Radcliff, C. Mull, D. LaRue, M. Nauta; SECOND ROW: B. Segerstrom, D. Hinks, M. Seger, L. Patton, D. Gierhart, W. Rife, D. Spicer; BACK ROW: J. Veldt, B. Waggoner, J. Metzler, K. Glassey, R. Kline, M. Castellani, M. Nelson.
7. The conference is highlighted by a Swordbearers cantata, "Go Tell Your World", which is directed by Kathy Howell.
8. One of this year's speakers is William Hopewell.
9. During his stay, Dan Lacey speaks to Dr. Monroe's geography class.
10. Craig Colas enjoys a chat with William Hopewell.

Guitars Rule At Alpha Chi Talent Night

It's February 5, 1977, and the stage is set for a big night of entertainment. Almost every seat in Alford Auditorium is filled; the performers are behind stage; and the Alpha Chi Talent Show is finally here.

This year's show is called "The Roaring Twenties" with emcees Dr. Clifford Johnson and Mrs. Pat Dixon setting the atmosphere. The winners of the 1977 Alpha Chi Talent Show were: 3rd place — Warren Throckmorton and Terry Broach; 2nd place — Dan Hicks and Phil Knowles; and 1st place — Dee and Debbie Jackson.

The 1977 talent show turned out to be quite a delight and was enjoyed by almost all who attended.

1. First place winners Dee and Debbie Jackson entertain with "Yes, I Know".
2. Terry Broach and Warren Throckmorton capture third place with an original love song.
3. Back by popular demand, Andy Grenier, Randy Douglass, Dave Burns, and Don Burns pantomime "There's a Rainbow".
4. Pondering over the ballot, Joe and Ruth Jenkins make the crucial decision as to who the winners will be.
5. Prophesying the fate of "Charlie's Angels", Gwen Sweeney keeps on rollin' as Farrah Fawcett-Majors.
6. Mock seriousness sets the tone for Jeanne Pippin and Rich Luedeke's ribald rendition of Brahms' "Hungarian Dance".
7. "One-Way Hitchhiker" won second place for Phil Knowles and Dan Hicks.
8. At Dr. Johnson's prompting, Mrs. Dixon vanishes ... and a ferocious tigress emerges.

AX Selects Sweetheart And Her Court

Each year, Alpha Chi, a campus organization of "Men for Christ," chooses the Alpha Chi Sweetheart Queen and her court. On Saturday, February 12, 1977, Mary Humbert was crowned Alpha Chi Sweetheart. Cherie Watts, Diane DeNicola, and Ruth Sprague made up the court. Alpha Chi, one of the most prominent organizations at Cedarville College, sponsors many events which include the annual Alpha Chi banquet, the Alpha Chi retreat, the Alpha Chi talent show, and Cedar Day. The responsibilities of the Sweetheart Queen and her court include representing Alpha Chi at the various activities sponsored by Alpha Chi and in the homecoming parade. They are called upon to give ideas and suggestions from a woman's point of view, and to represent the organization in Christian testimony.

1. Alpha Chi: FRONT ROW: S. Hoy, M. Highman, D. Burns, M. Cowell, C. Elliott, T. Altimus, M. Cayton, A. Morgan, G. Bowser; SECOND ROW: M. Peters, P. Schmutzler, A. Grenier, D. Burns, M. Kessel, B. Whitaker, D. Scott, M. Bentley, R. Stickelman, D. Wickman; THIRD ROW: R. Kaufman, C. Sarver, M. Schuchard, R. McClendon, R. Douglass, P. Godby, J. Dannenberg, J. Rohde, L. Twigg; BACK ROW: M. Shaw, S. Thompson, G. Gross, G. Brace, M. Jones, P. Budnik, W. Felmlee, D. Francis, L. Bunker.

2. Newly-crowned Mary Humbert listens to the sweetheart song of Alpha Chi.

3. Mary seems delighted with the outcome.

4. Court attendant Ruth Sprague with her escort Tim Altimus watch as Chuck Elliott introduces the new sweetheart to the audience.

5. A smiling face and a look of responsibility tell their own stories.

6. Cherie Watts with her escort Dan Hicks look on as Mary is crowned.

7. Diane DeNicola with escort Mark Highman smiles into the camera.

Seniors Trip To Florida

Twenty-nine students, two advisors (Mr. and Mrs. Harvey), a bus driver, and a guide, wearily arrive in Orlando, Florida after a 22 hour drive in a souped-up tour bus. The group starts their vacation visiting Sea World and eating a deluxe steak dinner. Yum! After sleeping on the floor of a Youth for Christ Center, all rise early, anticipating a full, exhaustive day at Disney World. Sunday morning finds the gang assembled together on Cocoa Beach for services, presented by Ken Evans. Sand, sun, and sea capture the Seniors for the rest of the day. Too soon, all are packed in the bus, heading home. Quick touring stops are made in Daytona Beach and Lookout Mountain in Tennessee. Fun, food, and fellowship make it a Senior Trip to remember.

1. Cinderella greets the little children — the Seniors jumped out of the camera's range!
2. Rose Ricker enjoys a rare treat on the Senior Trip — sleeping while sitting.
3. Trip coordinator Barb Beikert seems relieved that things are running smoothly.
4. The expression goes — "A man's home is his castle" — but Faith never looked like this!
5. Seniors Marlin Cayton, Sally Ott, Rick Kline, and Paul Budnik enjoy the Horseshoe Review at Disney World.
6. Dan Bowman makes friends with a hungry seagull.
7. Snow White, one of the local inhabitants of Disney World, models what the best-dressed Senior girls will be wearing to the J.S.

Organizations Provide Journalistic Training

A relatively new Christian service offered at Cedarville is LIVING SPRINGS. LIVING SPRINGS is a magazine that is aimed at reaching elderly people across the world. In this organization, college students write devotionals, articles of personal interest, puzzles, and poems. Along with these workers are students who labor on laying out the magazine, typing, and drawing.

Working closely with the newspaper and the yearbook is the Camera Club. They provide most of the pictures for these publications. Under the direction of Roy Kern, they learn the techniques and skills involved in professional photography. The club not only provides a service to the school, but is a useful learning experience to its members. They are involved in the total process of picture taking — from rolling their own film to printing the final picture.

1. Deep in thought, Pat Farmwald listens as the next magazine issue is planned.

2. John Dannenberg puts his negative in place as he prepares to print a picture.

3. Jim Barrett takes aim as he raises the camera.

4. A "meeting of the minds" work on the next issue for LIVING SPRINGS.

5. Living Springs: FRONT ROW: G. Gross (Assistant Editor), M. Highman (Editor), J. Ebel, P. Farmwald, B. Gilbert, C. Denny; SECOND ROW: R. Douglass, R. Connors, G. Bennett, D. Woodall, D. Burns, Pastor Green; BACK ROW: C. McLane, C. Lofgren, J. Coleman, D. Bond, D. Jansen, B. Guenther.

6. Mark Highman takes his turn as LIVING SPRINGS prepares for a bake sale.

7. Mark Castellani places a new batch of negatives out to dry.

8. Camera Club: Roy Kern, D. Denny, M. McDougal, A. Ross, M. Castellani, J. Dannenberg, J. Barrett.

Newspaper Continues To Improve

This year, WHISPERING CEDARS, the bi-weekly edition of the Cedarville College campus newspaper boasts the largest staff in its history. Varying from 6 — 8 pages, the paper is also longer than ever before. Another first includes national features, such as the comic strip "Peanuts" and a syndicated column by Jack Anderson. Issuing from the dark recesses of its headquarters in the basement of Marshall dormitory, WHISPERING CEDARS is distributed to all Cedarville students and faculty through intra-campus mail. The newspaper also goes out to subscribers which include alumni, pastors, parents, trustees, donors, and over 20 other colleges.

Run totally by student journalists (assisted by Advisor, Mr. Ron Grosh), CEDARS is funded by money from the Student Activities Office and local advertising.

1. Susan Zink and Karen Haga do their share to prepare the paper for printing.
2. Claire Phillips ponders how to lay-out the articles.
3. A cluttered table tells the WHISPERING CEDARS production story — from single picture and articles, to layout sheets, to the final printed copy.
4. Co-editor Wendy McNiece works on advertisements for the next issue.
5. Craig Miller, Co-editor, stops his own work to give instruction to others.
6. Whispering Cedars: Ron Grosh (Advisor), B. Anderson, M. Sprano, K. Price, J. Tedeschi, K. Haga, B. Foreman, S. Myers, M. O'Quinn, C. Olson, N. Terkildsen, D. Monts, C. Lofgren, C. Starbuck, S. Poling, D. Green, R. Wagner, C. Phillips, T. Wagner, B. Waggoner, S. Zink, E. Dugan.

Instrumental Groups Create Music

Brass Quintet, Brass Choir, and Wind Ensemble are special courses offered at Cedarville. In order to take these classes, one must first audition and then be selected by the music instructors. These groups perform on campus and at churches. Brass Quintet has the most serious selection of music; Brass Choir covers the entire musical range of the brass section; and the Wind Ensemble is the largest instrumental group on campus. Pep Band plays for pregame warm-up and during the halftime at the basketball games.

1. Jim Luce toots on his tuba.
2. Blaring trumpets entertain the crowd during half time.
3. Brass Quintet: Dr. Robert Monroe, P. North, J. Raber, L. Stigers, D. McMurray.
4. Wind Ensemble: FRONT ROW: B. Apple, G. Wagner, K. McMurray, J. Riter, R. Taylor; SECOND ROW: C. Heatly, T. Galbreath, D. Wetzel, S. Reynolds, G. Krause, K. Snyder, S. Levin, P. North, C. Hargis, S. Titus, M. Vincent, D. Messenger; THIRD ROW: K. Henderson, C. Keller, C. Miller, B. Webber, J. Cartwright, S. Logsdon, J. DenOtter, D. Woodall, V. Ward, L. Roberts, L. Stigers, D. McMurray, R. Wagner, S. Swayze, F. Laxton, S. Myers; STAND-ING: A. Henning, Dr. Robert Monroe, J. Acker, K. Faull, T. Bos, K. Payne, J. Mohler, J. Graham, J. Raber, A. Webber, D. Hicks, D. Wagner, J. Townsend.
5. Music stands and empty chairs fill a vacant practice room.
6. Pep Band: FRONT ROW: A. Henning, R. Taylor, B. Prentice, B. Fuller, C. Heatly, S. Myers; SECOND ROW: A. Webber, S. Swayze, B. Baldwin, J. Terrell, F. Laxton, T. Bos; THIRD ROW: J. Luce, M. 7. Brass Choir: FRONT ROW: L. Roberts, S. Titus, J. Townsend, D. Wagner, D. McMurray, Dr. Robert Monroe; SECOND ROW: F. Laxton, J. Mohler, C. Hargis, S. Levin, S. Myers, S. Swayze; THIRD ROW: T. Box, R. Wagner, P. North, J. Raber, L. Stigers.

Ministry In Music

There are several musical groups representing Cedarville College this school year. Among these are: Joyful Sounds Trio, Living Hope Trio, Aletheia, and Abundant Life. The Joyful Sounds Trio travels as a part of Choralaires, and also ministers in the morning chapel service. As a one time experiment, The Living Hope Trio started singing. They developed into a special group which serves the Lord through their music. Aletheia is a vocal and guitar group specializing in contemporary Christian music. A traveling musical ensemble describes Abundant Life. Their ministry encompasses weekends and a summer tour in which the group sings about the abundant life that Christ alone can give.

1. Living Hope Trio: N. Lightner (pianist), J. Surso, P. Henry, D. DeNicola.
2. Abundant Life: D. Cobb, R. Luedeke, J. Pippin, J. Willetts, L. Avery, J. Riter, D. Dunn, L. West, M. Cayton, P. Birkenholtz.
3. Aletheia: S. Browne, T. Broach, J. Ward, W. Throckmorton.
4. A concert on the lawn entertains visitors during Cedar Day Weekend.
5. Dave Cobb runs the sound equipment for Abundant Life Singers.
6. Joyful Sounds Trio: L. DeYoung, C. Hulsman, R. Eaton. Not pictured — B. Klimmek and C. Sprunger (pianists).

Lending Assistance To Others

Phi Epsilon Kappa is better translated "Light in the World". Those students who believe that they are called into some area of fulltime Christian work meet together for instruction from guest speakers and fellowship with one another. A volunteer honorary student group whose purpose is to host campus visitors describes Pi Delta. They conduct campus tours; make sure that guests have lodging; and show good ole Cedarville hospitality.

Assisting churches in the general area is the main purpose of the canvassing ministry. Students accomplish this by going door-to-door taking a survey of a specific church's surrounding community.

Cedarville's chapter of Music Educators National Conference seeks to acquaint its members with the most effective techniques and resources in music education. Their newest undertaking is the spring musical, "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown."

1. Could it be that Linus "kisses the girls and makes them cry?"
2. Tim Pasma, playing the part of Charlie Brown, pauses to sign an autograph for an adoring fan.
3. Phi Epsilon Kappa: M. Davenport, A. Ternak, K. Browne, D. Storch.
4. Canvassing: G. Bennett, D. Woodall, A. Simpson, C. Miller, D. VanLoan, K. Seymour, B. Kessler, B. Guenther, K. Lapp, R. Kinkle, N. Crandall, C. Keller, M. Johnson.
5. MENC: FRONT ROW: B. Klimek, R. Eaton, C. Hulsman, R. Luedeke, D. Spencer; BACK ROW: J. Mohler, J. Riter, K. Seymour, C. Sprunger, A. Henning.
6. Pi Delta: C. Miller, C. Phillips, R. Yoder, B. Begley.

Brains Is The Name Of The Game

Highlighting the year for Timalathians involves a trip to Indianapolis to hear the well-known Dr. Francis Schaeffer lecture. Other activities of the club include reading books, viewing Francis Schaeffer movies, and participating in panel discussions. All members of Timalathians are given the opportunity to broaden their knowledge and voice their own opinions on current philosophical trends.

Cedarville's Chess Club provides an opportunity for chessmen to improve their game. Members are encouraged to read up on chess skills. Several flea markets are held to earn money for their tournaments.

1. Timalathians take notes at the Schaeffer lectures.
2. Ron Miller leads in a short devotional before the group leaves for Indianapolis.
3. Timalathians: M. Seeley, R. Miller, R. Park, W. Johnson, B. Miller.
4. Chess Club: R. Conners, M. Vincent, T. Davis, P. McCullough, C. Starbuck, D. Quinn, K. Kerrigan, Dr. Scott, Mrs. Scott, R. Yoder, K. Andrus.
5. Francis Schaeffer poses the question: "How Should We Then Live?"
6. Answering questions after the lecture is Edith Schaeffer.

Fun, Food And Fellowship

A men's organization that offers services to the campus of Cedarville College and fellowship for its members is Pi Sigma Nu. Each year fifteen members are initiated into the organization. The initiation is its most noted activity. Ranking second is the shovelling of snow from the school's sidewalks during the winter.

Varsity C is a club for men who have lettered in sports at Cedarville. They are responsible for the church tournaments held on campus during the winter, and also for the food sold to spectators at the basketball games.

1. A visiting coach is awarded a trophy for his team's placing in the church tournaments sponsored by Varsity C.

2. Steve Uyenshi, Joe Harkleroad, and Jon Wyman work hard selling popcorn at basketball games.

3. VARSITY C: FRONT ROW: W. Rowe, T. Williams, K. Waiters, D. Chesser, D. Self, D. Stoner, J. Wyman, M. Ziegler, D. Jarvis; SECOND ROW: P. Budnik, J. Harkleroad, R. Cagwin, B. Henslin, B. Hull, J. Potter, P. Slusher, W. Gifford; THIRD ROW: R. Thomas, T. Benefiel, K. Erny, B. Fleming, R. Thacker, W. Gerber, D. Wood.

4. Dan Dedic keeps score for the tournaments.

5. A stolen Pi Sigma Nu bell is now property of Alpha Chi.

Jackets Face Difficult Season

The men's varsity basketball squad once again provides exciting moments for Jacket fans, even though they do not accomplish a winning season. The Jackets see tough competition in such teams as Malone, Rio Grande, Walsh, and Central State — and the 12-13 win-loss total bears record of the difficult season. The team's 59.8 free throw percentage does not help matters either.

Cedarville's strong point this season is definitely its height. The starting lineup averages 6'6" tall. It is evidenced by the fact that they outrebound their opponents frequently. Dave Wood, Jeff Reep, Steve Lones, and Don Smith all had over seven rebounds per game, with Wood capturing 18 against Grace College.

The Jackets lose Don Smith, who has the most stuffs this year, and Rock Thacker to graduation, but everyone else is returning to a squad that is packed with potential for the 1977-78 season.

1. The 1976-77 Basketball Varsity Squad: BACK ROW: K. Kaufman, R. Thacker, S. Lones, D. Wood, D. Smith, J. Reep, J. Potter, Coach Callan; FRONT ROW: J. Myers, D. Chesser, M. Streitmatter, J. Lantz, K. Waiters, M. Allen.

2. Mike Allen's quickness helps Cedarville at the guard position.

3. Leading scorer Steve Lones puts up a one-hander.

4. Don Smith makes sure of a bucket for the Jackets.

5. Kevin Waiters, shooting a jump shot, leads the team in both assists and steals.

6. The hustle of John Potter is certainly an asset to the team.

Spirit Leaders Boost Teams

The Yellowjackets basketball and soccer teams receive an extra boost of enthusiasm from Cedarville's cheerleading squads. Cedarville has two such squads, consisting of Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleaders. Each group participates in promoting school spirit during the games. These squads give women opportunities to use their talents, and to be a witness for Christ to competitor schools.

1. During a time out, the cheerleaders form a pyramid.

2. Rhonda Young coaxes the crowd to stand and get into the "spirit of things".

3. A new member of this year's squad, Judy Henson, cheers the Jackets on to victory.

4. Another new face on the Varsity is Joyce Klamm.

5. Andy MacDermaid encourages the crowd to have school spirit.

6. Becky Seldon claps in time to the cheer.

7. During a tense moment, Ruth Sprague tries to cheer up the crowd.

8. VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Joyce Klamm, Andy MacDermaid, Ruth Sprague, Becky Seldon, Rhonda Young, Judy Henson.

9. JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Darlene Tillson, Barb Adams, Amy Young, Kim Smith, Judy Brown.

Women Cagers Show Promise

Coach Jeremiah's cagers turn in a very respectable season, showing great potential for the next few seasons as well. A team scoring record is established as the Jackettes demolish Wittenberg 97-27. The acquisition of Freshman Vicki Butler certainly has not hurt the team as she leads in field goal percentage, total points and average, and rebounding. Sophomore Cathy Bunton, voted MVP, turns in another fine season, having the most assists and steals, as well as being second in scoring. Dorene Sands shows everyone who's boss in free throws as she leads the team in that category, as well as capturing the free throw championship at the state tournament.

1. Laura Risser attempts to keep the ball.
2. Kim Gall looks for two more points.
3. Cindy Orrick lays one in from the line.
4. Basketball Team: FRONT ROW: C. Castle, L. Palmer, C. Bunton, K. Gall, B. Ziemer, L. Risser; BACK ROW: J. Jacobitz, J. Priola, R. Norton, V. Butler, D. Sands, C. Anderson, S. Orihood, Coach Maryalyce Jeremiah.
5. The opponent tries to block the shot, but Vicki Butler lays it in.
6. Moving past her guard, Debbie Selden puts it up for two.
7. Cathy Bunton makes a hairy shot.
8. Shawn Taylor overpowers the opponent for a shot.

Nationals Berth Highlights Season

The Jacket grapplers turn in a 5-8-2 season this winter as they are plagued once again by injuries and a lack of wrestlers. Their strength is shown in matches such as the overwhelming of Bluffton, 48-6. Undoubtedly, the highlight comes as Cedarville stuns an NCAA major university, Georgia Tech, 30-23. Four matmen take MOC top honors as the team finishes 3rd. Two of the Jackets, Dale West and Armand Ternak, make the long trip to Nationals with their second place showing in District #22 competition.

1. Wrestling Team: FRONT ROW: D. Self, D. West, A. Ternak, D. Pippin, K. Hathaway; BACK ROW: Coach Gary Storm, M. Barnett, T. Williams, P. Gardner, J. Conklin, D. McGhee, J. Shaner, J. Kollar, D. Fields.
2. Senior Tom Williams wrestles well in his first season.
3. Jim Kollar listens to Pete Gardner's version of his match.
4. Most Valuable Wrestler Armand Ternak has his man just about pinned.
5. Coach Dernlan's son tries to give Dale West a few "needed" pointers.
6. His man behind him, Jim Kollar plots his next move.
7. Most Improved Wrestler Don Pippin tries to break his man down.
8. Dale West shows the form that took him to the Nationals in Spokane, Washington.

Cold Weather Spurs Heated Competition

Men's and women's basketball highlight Cedarville's winter intramural program, providing a means of exercising to stay warm in this year's sub-zero weather. Although it is cold outside, the action is hot and heavy in the gym. In women's basketball, Patterson dorm romps through the opposition for the top prize. Men's basketball proves to be a hotly contested issue as Upper Williams beats Off-Campus twice during the regular season, but finally succumbs by a close margin in the championship.

1. Opponents stretch to gain control of the jump ball in intramural action.
2. The ball is "the one that almost got away."
3. Behind every successful BB program are those people who are responsible for keeping records and statistics.
4. Action under the bucket is intense.
5. This is the proper technique for a set shot.
6. John Briggs takes special care to mark this lay-up.
7. Members of the faculty and staff are shown here taking a "break from the action".

Students Care About School's Functioning

Each department chooses one student to represent it on the Academic Advisory Board. It meets with Dr. Johnson twice a month to discuss concerns students may have regarding different academic programs.

The Advisory Twelve, comprised of three men from each class and Pastor Green, is responsible for the spiritual concerns of the student body. They act as deacons of the college chapel.

Residing in West Hall is Alpha Chi Resque Squad. They are on call 24 hours a day for any campus emergency that may arise.

The Personnel Assistants are hired by the school in order that the rules will be enforced in the dorms. These people are leaders because they are in charge of a group of students; they are friends because they reach out and help those needing encouragement.

1. RESQUE SQUAD: S. Terlouw, D. Drozak, L. Bunker, D. Francis, G. Felmlee, T. O'Neal, D. Wishart, E. DeLange.

In Memory Of Thomas Smith

C. Thomas Smith, 47, manager of food service at Cedarville College, died early Saturday morning, February 25. He had suffered a heart attack Friday evening while in his home and was taken to Greene Memorial Hospital. Smith had been manager of food service since September, 1964.

During his supervision, the cafeteria has seen marked improvements throughout the years. This year, new trays were purchased for use in the cafeteria. The addition of a salad bar/drink center at the start of the cafeteria line created more seating space in the dining room.

Smith is survived by his widow, Nancy; his mother (consultant manager for the food service); two sons, Michael (now acting as food service manager), and Timothy; a sister, Mary Jane Parker of Bowling Green; and a brother, David C. of Cleveland.

1. Ken Erny helps himself at the salad bar, a new addition this year.
2. One Sunday night students are treated to tacos.
3. Amy Lamb finds the cafeteria a great place to share her ideas.
4. The snack shop is a favorite spot for the kids from the town, as well as Cedarville College students.
5. The late Mr. Thomas Smith, head of cafeteria services.
6. Dave Messenger "digs in".

HALL

Expect The Unexpected In Williams

In the center of the campus stands a brick edifice fondly referred to as Williams Hall by those dwelling within its confines. The hall houses over 90 inmates of the male species. Many popular pasttimes of these males include football, frisbee, Rook, golf matches, and wrestling. Other extra-curricular activities engaged in include: 10-speed bike riding in the halls for leisurely exercise, and dating services, among other various forms of fine arts and interests. The edifice, from without, is decorated with various items of interest, which include stacked bottles and pop cans, a skull, a Xenia Daily Gazette newspaper box, and of all things, the hand of some poor soul who didn't quite make it out the window. Despite the shenanigans of the Williamsites, there is a great spiritual aspect to their lives — one of good Christian fellowship and unity, and an openness to share burdens and blessings.

1. Something on that television has Clark Ruh and Dave Stoner mesmerized.
2. Dale Shaw puts the finishing touches on a paper.
3. There can be no doubt what candidates the Williamsites support in the Cedar What elections — the losers!
4. If he only studied that hard!
5. Winter strikes Williams as this VW in the parking lot aptly reveals.
6. Russ Yoder and roommate "Ervin" have a close relationship.
7. In honor of a Whispering Cedars article, Williams is renamed (temporarily) for the reporter.
8. Dennis Chesser demonstrates a favorite Williams pasttime.

More Women Per Square Feet

Residents of the largest dorm on Cedarville's campus, Maddox girls lead an interesting life, under the watchful eye of Mrs. Printy, (Ma). Many of the activities these girls participate in take place in the courtyard. Midnight jogs around the courtyard (twelve laps equal one mile) help the girls keep in shape. Building snowmen in the courtyard is a favorite wintertime activity, while sunbathing is popular in the spring. Parties in Ma Printy's apartment provide a change from the usual entertainment. A "holy" snake produced excitement this year, when it was discovered in the prayer room. Freshmen girls find life in Maddox an interesting place to begin college life, as they adjust to living three to a room. Upperclassmen usually manage to have only two to a room, but there still is a problem when five girls try to use one mirror all at the same time!

1. Many late nights are spent over the typewriter.
2. A typical Maddox room is not exactly what you would find in GOOD HOUSE-KEEPING.
3. A rare treat is male visitors during open house.

9. During the winter months Maddox girls retreat to the warmth of their rooms.

Home, Sweet Home

Although it is often ignored by passersby on their journey to Marshall and Carr, Rogers Dorm is definitely a part of Cedarville's campus. Since it was just converted from apartments into a mens' dorm, one wonders how to fit six guys into a bathroom reported to be somewhat comparable in size to a telephone booth. With the RA living right below them, many of the guys are also faced with trying to live a reasonably normal life as a college student, while maintaining complete silence.

Marshall, the twin brother of Carr, is known for extremes in individuality. Each unit has its own unique personality, with the residents of the unit forming close friendships with each other. The dorm as a whole cannot be classified as either studious or rowdy, but rather there are a few studious units, and many rowdy ones. (A factor contributing to this may be the recreation available in the basement of Marshall.)

1. Al Woodruff's acrobats make you wonder if the picture is upside down.
2. A speedy exit seems in store for this Roger resident.
3. Taking a leisurely pose, Keith Namy chats with a friend.
4. "Ready, Aim . . ." Phil Smith looks menacingly toward a nearby friend.
5. Dick Krewson practices his downhill form in anticipation of the weekend.
6. Keith Glassey leads the men's choir of Marshall as he sings into a jumprope microphone.
7. The photographer is kept dizzy as he tries to snap this fellow's picture.
8. Dave Denny tries his hand at table top shuffleboard.

Dorms Go Female

Reclining on the east side of campus is a one-floor, brick structure known as Patterson Hall. Once, in years past, the humble abode of a choice group of Cedarville men, it now houses members of the female gender. With the drastic change in residents, Patterson has taken on a more feminine quality, a more refined look. New paint (black and Yellow?!) has added to the new image of the dorm. The fact that it is so small adds to a more homey atmosphere, drawing residents closer as a family.

On the north side of campus looms a white structure greatly resembling an army barracks, known to the college family as Bethel Hall, housing 31 fair ladies from various backgrounds. These feminine residents reside in single rooms, a rare pleasure on campus.

Here, the Bethel Belles study, enjoy the privacy, or, when the occasion demands, pack their rooms with friends and fellowship. Luxuries include carpeting and paneling; thus eliminating cold floors and peeling paint.

1. "Yes, Mother, I did clean my room today," remarks Karen Solenne.
2. An exciting adventure is undertaken by Margo Axiotis — balancing on an inner tube in the hall.
3. So this is what a typical get-together in Patterson dorm looks like!
4. Even though one has conked out, four others are still anticipating the all-nighter.
5. Sara Browning becomes a "slave" by ironing for Patterson's money-making project.
6. Clenching a white pen, Vicki Cline recharges her brain by watching television.
7. "Scrub-a- dub-dub" Sherri Jones sings as she cleans the car.
8. Donna Marland converses with that "special someone."

Three Dorms Share Same Resident Adviser

Rumored by its occupants to have various obnoxious vermin crawling the floors of its dark basement is West Hall — the old white house hidden behind the Science Center. Housing the members of the Alpha Chi Rescue Squad, West Hall consists of two stories, boasting a balcony, kitchen, and garage for the Squad's ambulance. West shares a Resident Adviser with Carr Dorm, located approximately 100 yards to its south. One of the few carpeted dorms on campus, Carr is divided into units with four rooms per unit and two guys per room. Carr is Marshall's identical twin in exterior appearance. Marshall's basement is a recreation room while Carr's is more rooms. Known for the altruism of its residents, Carr also shares the R.A. belonging to itself and West with Palmer Dorm which lies directly behind Carr. Just opened up this year, Palmer is composed of two buildings and a duplex house.

1. It is a fact that Floyd Dallis is engaged — but is this his fiancée?
2. Jerry Lantz burns the midnight oil.
3. Jack Caulfield exemplifies good study habits.
4. John Andrew appears to have given up his mischievousness and is resigned to undo what he did — or maybe he was just practicing!
5. Life at West Hall includes lively chats on the way to the ball diamond.
6. West Hall is a testing ground for future homemakers, as Dave Rich and Tim O'Neal demonstrate.
7. Is the flying debris going in or coming out of Mark Streitmatter's mouth?
8. Is Dave Drozeck getting his hair trimmed — or trying to read an eye chart?

They've Found The Homey Side Of Life

Most people think that dorm life is dull. Those who say this have never lived in Faith Dorm. Here at Faith, the girls enjoy a personal closeness like that of a great, big, happy family. In between their studies, they enjoy popcorn parties, devotion time, and a lot of laughs.

The dorm is split up into two sections: Old Faith, mostly for freshmen, and New Faith for the upper classmen.

A new thing has come to the campus of Cedarville — apartments for single girls. The apartments are generally for those girls who will be student teaching for at least one quarter. The apartments consist of two bedrooms, a big living room, a kitchen, and a bathroom. Each girl shares in the cleaning and cooking duties, but most of the time, share in fun and good times.

1. The secure feeling of a shared blanket helps one study.
2. Snowflakes from the ceiling are a sure sign of Christmas Open House.
3. Faith's bathroom faucets provide ammunition for a water fight.
4. Is this Sally Price's piece of the (pet) rock?
5. A glowing tree radiates the warmth of Christmas.
6. Helen Vassari, Marilyn White, Barb Wagner, and Mia Leisure smile as they relax in their apartment.
7. "Yes, it's Saturday", sighs Bonnie Guenther.
8. Residents of Old Faith cuddle with their favorite friends.
9. Chris Taylor reclines in her leopard chair.
10. Brenda Giles and Kim Simmons prove that washing dishes can be fun.

South Of The Tracks

Cedar Park: One of those crazy college memories to be laughed at ten years after graduation. But who can describe that first day when the lonely freshman arrives at Cedarville to discover that his "home" for the next year is a mile off the main campus, and "Sorry, you'll have to walk today; the vans aren't working"? "The Park", as it is affectionately termed, houses some 120 residents, largely freshmen, with some upperclassmen, transfers, and PA's who commute to and from campus by means of a van service furnished by the school. Nights at the Park are often filled with shaving cream and water fights, mud-slides, and telephone and pop can stunts.

1. Groaning in pain after eating in the cafeteria, Morris wonders if he actually has "nine lives."
2. In their spacious lounge, Park "Sesame Street" fans gather to watch their favorite character.
3. John Eissens, weary of the Park's favorite pasttime — Rook, decides to study for a final.
4. Thanks to their President, Craig Colas, the Freshman Class will not need to sell ink pens any more to make money.
5. Roger Glidden admires the now- famous actress, Farrah Fawcett-Majors.
6. Jim Leightenheimer and Jeff Pinson determine who will get the hot shower.
7. Barry Heagy calls in another demerit for Rich Harley's unkempt room.
8. A tired Eskimo, Bruce Keizer, sleeps in his favorite Cedar Park igloo.
9. Allen Gilbert wonders if "Miss Right" will ever call!

Luxury Living Provided By Three Dorms

Cedarville's showcases of antiquity, Hartman, Harriman and South, stand tall and stout as they remind the college of yesterday's past. The residents of these houses experience a more homey situation of warmth and closeness than in the dorms. There is a sense of freedom reigning within these three relics because of their exclusion from the college campus. The three noble fossils add to the college's sophistication and heritage.

1. Escaping to the lounge in Harriman, Martha Schneeberger studies for a New Testament test.
2. Kathy Price wonders if there is any resemblance between herself and a snowman friend.
3. Doesn't Karen Webster know that writing papers is no joking matter!
4. A beautician from the Pink Parlor in South Charleston demonstrates hair styling for the eager girls of Hartman, Harriman, and South.
5. Who else but Sally Ott would own Snoopy slippers!?
6. With plunger in hand, Cherie Watts does her impersonation of maintenance.
7. Becky Brown relaxes from studies by strumming her guitar.
8. Someone very interesting must be at the top of the stairs to attract the attention of the girls at South.
9. Lydia West seems engrossed in Baptist History — it's obviously a posed picture!
10. Carol Williams gets ready for a big date.
11. Charlotte Olson shows off her new play toy.

The Cold Drives Them Inside

The wind whips persistently, causing huge snow drifts to block roads and sidewalks. Temperature records are broken by the freezing weather that hits Cedarville. Campused students seek refuge from the cold and relief from their bleak attitudes. With energy consumption advised at a bare minimum, students gather en masse at the Student Gymnasium Center for recreation. Many others are found taking advantage of their plight by using their time wisely, in study.

Spirits ebb, but perservere, with the hope "it can't last forever!" In the back of everyone's mind are thoughts of ... SPRING!!

1. Janice Croy spends the long winter day looking up terminology for use in her research paper.
2. If only Joel Hunter's mother could see his new bonnet!
3. A game of tiddlywinks is enjoyed by Keith Glassey and Debbie Gierhart.
4. What would you rate this hand?
5. Craig Stephens seems about to accept her proposal!
6. Dianne Muirhead and Fred Laxton relax in the Marshall basement.
7. During the cold weather much time is spent inside playing rook, as Mark Keough, Dan Hicks, Darlene Repp, and Dan Self demonstrate.
8. Is Dale Mattox as deeply engrossed in his studies as he appears to be?
9. With their radiant smiles Janet Bubel and Janet Van Ryn add a little sunshine to the bleak winter.
10. There's always time for good fellowship and songs, especially in the dead of winter.

SPRING

Music Groups Keep Busy

"Active" certainly describes this year's Concert Choir and Choralaires. Spring break, finds Concert Choir, under the leadership of Director David Matson, travelling southward, eventually hitting sunny Florida. The Choralaires and leader Lyle Anderson head northward to cold New England, where they, for a day, find themselves snowbound. Travelling for the groups is not restricted to spring break — many weekends in both winter and spring quarters are spent in musical ministry with churches throughout the Midwest.

6. Diane DeNicola knows how to make the most of her travelling time.

7. On their spring tour, Marilyn Horne defiantly claims the U.S.S. Constitution for her group.

Beach Is The Setting For Evangelism

Ft. Lauderdale is the ideal destination for college students over spring break — fun and sun being their main goal. But thirty students from Cedarville College, along with Pastor Green, head for the southlands with a different goal in mind — that of sharing their faith with other college kids. This year's Beach Evangelism Team works with two churches, Grace Baptist of Ft. Lauderdale, and Westgate Baptist of Plantation. They sing in these churches on the weekends, and witness at the beach during the week. The team also is in charge of two youth rallies. Several promising contacts are made during the week. The team not only develops a unity among its members, but grows in the Lord as they learn to trust in Him.

1. Members of the team minister in a church service.
2. Sheik Steve Poling and a beacher talk before the breakers.
3. Taking time out, Jim Jamison reads from his Bible.
4. Ocean surf breaks on the ragged rocks near shore.
5. Pastor Green involuntarily takes a flying dunk.
6. Finding a seat on the beach, Bruce, Steve and a sunner chat.

European Flavor Added To Banquet

With the gymnasium emblazoned in French decor, the Gamma Chi Banquet is one of the biggest formal events in Spring Quarter. Strolling minstrels and a French cuisine set the stage for the "April in Paris" theme. After the banquet a concert is held in the chapel in which the Murk Family perform for the guests.

1. Bright-colored balloons add to the gala of the occasion.
2. The fountain glistens in the foreground as Debby Martin, Nancy Drake, and Vicki Cline enjoy their meal.
3. The Murk Family provide entertainment for the evening.
4. Danette Wetzel and Ron Bartley wonder if the second course will be better than the first.
5. Karen Haga sketches props for the decor.
6. Singing minstrels, Jearl Ward and Terry Broach, set the mood for the evening.
7. Dates march two-by-two to the Gamma Chi Banquet.
8. Marilyn Nauta plays the part of a wandering minstrel.

Charlie Brown Visits Cedarville

MENC gives a thoroughly entertaining musical in the spring. Tim Pasma, Lou Ann DeYoung, Byron Major, John Mohler, Ron Bigelow, and Lila Terlouw star in Charles Schultz's "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown." The musical is directed by Rich Luedeke. The performance recaptures memories from every student's childhood.

1. Fear grips Charlie Brown as he notices the little red-haired girl looking his way.
2. Patty and Lucy come face to face with vampire Linus.
3. Snoopy and Patty engage in an early morning rabbit hunt.
4. There is nothing more special than first love — Lucy for Schroeder and Schroeder for Beethoven.
5. Sometimes a brother's consoling shoulder becomes a necessity.
6. The World War I Flying Ace scans the sky in search of the Red Baron.
7. The crowd-and Snoopy-pleaser has to be "Supertime".
8. Lucy polls Charlie Brown on her crabbi-ness quotient as Snoopy obviously displays his response.
9. Charlie Brown unburdens his problems to a caring, concerned Lucy.

Work-A-Thon Draws Student Participation

Student Senate is a governmental body composed of elected members from either a class or an organization. Each participant is involved in helping the college to function properly. Their responsibilities range from organizing major events held on campus, such as Homecoming, to handing out student loans and grants. The Senate is the acting go-between for the students and the Administration. The biggest project undertaken by the whole student body this year is the Work-A-Thon, organized by Student Body Project. May 4 is the day in which Cedarville College students work in the city park, the Cedar Cliff High School football field, the Indian Mound, and other areas in the town and on campus. The project has a twofold purpose: to show concern for and interest in the surrounding community of Cedarville, and to raise money for the new chapel organ.

1. The chipping paint on Bethel Hall is a project for students in the Work-A-Thon.
2. Debris is removed from the wooded areas adjacent to Cedarville.
3. Dawn Shumaker plants marigolds to beautify the walkways.
4. A lonely wheelbarrow waits to be filled.
5. Student Body Project Committee: BACK ROW: M. Kessel, T. Bos, B. Heagy, P. Miller, J. Veldt, J. Gehrke, D. Scott, D. Blackburn; SECOND ROW: D. Zaller, C. Hammond, J. Vogel; FRONT ROW: J. Graham, C. Jacobs, D. Jansen, R. Moore.

Students Selected For Honors

On May 6 Honor's Day recognizes students who excell academically. The 1977 program is different from former years in that the emphasis is placed on the spiritual aspect of academics. The service includes music and special speakers. Students on the Dean's List and the Dean's Honor List are noted as a group. Awards are given to faculty members and students during other chapel services.

Twenty-three students from Cedarville College are honored by Who's Who in American Colleges for the 1977-78 year.

Cedar Day Ushers In Springtime

The men of Alpha Chi help to make spring an even more exciting time of year by celebrating Cedar Day. Cedar Day as well as the entire weekend is a tradition from the early days of the college. More importantly Cedar Weekend affords a special opportunity for prospective students to learn in a unique way what Cedarville has to offer. The sublime (artist-lecture series, College Choir concert, challenging sports events) as well as the ridiculous (road rallies, raft races, relay races) are all a part of Cedar weekend.

Cedar Weekend is indeed a festive occasion as well as a homecoming. It's a great way to start and enjoy springtime in Cedarville.

1. Charlotte Olson and Nate Rehn give thanks before they indulge in Cedar Day's picnic.
2. Cedar Day usually brings out a variety of lake creatures!
3. The candy apples are too inviting for Keith Willhite.
4. Any resemblance to a Chinese rickshaw is purely coincidental!
5. An old tire provides entertainment for these two Cedarville lads.
6. Canoe races are the highlight of the day for water lovers.
7. One of the survivors makes it to shore.
8. This ship is about to lose her crew!

Roles Reverse For Sadie Hawkins

"Turnabout is fair play", as May 13 is the day when the girls ask the guys to spend the day with them. Some of the events that take place on the "unlucky" day of Friday the 13th are a picnic and canoe races. A highlight is the "Gong Show" where students get to display their talents? If they fail to please the judges, they are gonad Gonged!!

The day ends with a long evening consisting of bowling and miniature golfing, and finally breakfast at 2:00 a.m. Cartoons are shown for those still merry at heart. Maybe a tradition has been started . . .

1. Dr. Johnson, alias Farmer Jones, emcees for the evening.
2. The beautiful spring weather makes it right for a picnic by the lake.
3. The Living Hope Trio's image is "ruined" as they perform for the Gong Show.
4. Little Abner and Daisy Mae come for festivities on Sadie Hawkins Day.
5. Merle Ziegler and Karin Angel fly around the bases in couples softball.
6. The judges are very discreet in their decision to GONG.
7. A participant in the canoe races hurries to put her tennis ball in the can.
8. A comedy stunt is about to be gonged!

Seniors Are Honored In Special Way

"This One's For You," the 1977 Junior-Senior Banquet makes May 20th a special day for all those attending. Stouffer's in nearby Dayton is the site in which over 300 students and staff converge. Stouffer's, one of Dayton's newer hotels, enhances the entire evening with its excellent food and service and its beautiful outdoor garden. Dinner music by Warren Throckmorton and Scott Browne also add to the beauty of the evening. The banquet is not without humor, as Seniors Wendy McNiece and Chip Bernhard bring back some of the "highlights" of the past four years. The skilled performance of the piano duo of Stephen Nielson and Ovid Young, who entertain with music ranging from Marvin Hamlisch to Sergei Rachmaninov, brings the enjoyable banquet to a close.

1. Scott Browne and Warren Throckmorton strum soft dinner music on their guitars.
2. Smiling for their picture are Dianne Muirhead and Fred Laxton.
3. Senior Class President Phil Hayes introduces Wendy and Chip, after sharing a few memories of his own.
4. Entertainment is provided by Stephen Nielson and Ovid Young.
5. Special guests to the occasion include Dr. Jeremiah and his wife.
6. Carol Radcliff is provided the opportunity to see an old friend at the Junior-Senior Banquet.
7. Martha White and Tom Mohler ascend the stairs leading to the banquet hall.
8. Before entering the dining hall, Don Bartemus helps himself to some fruit punch.
9. Gene McMillan and Diana Rae enjoy the chance to chat with friends before dinner.
10. Senior memories, presented by Wendy McNiece and Chip Bernhard, provide a time for laughing and remembering.

Students Are Enticed Outdoors

Spring quarter always finds a special place in the hearts of Cedarville students. The warm weather and bright sunshine brings them outside after a long, cold winter quarter. Perhaps this year spring is anticipated even more than ever because of the 1977's record low temperatures for the winter season. Afternoon classes seem less popular during spring quarter and studies are forgotten until the late evening hours, leaving the afternoon free for sunning.

1. Even the ducks appear joyful that spring has finally come!
2. An afternoon spent at the tennis court is one way to escape from studies.
3. The warm weather lures Mike Smith out of the kitchen to enjoy the day.
4. Rushing waters hint the coming of spring.
5. Spring is a time for showers — in more ways than one!
6. A spot in the sun provides the chance to get a few rays and catch up on reading.
7. The shade of a tree becomes more popular than the Student Lounge on warm days.
8. A beautiful waterfall makes a refreshing picture.

Young Squad Posts Winning Season

After mopping up in Florida, winning five straight, Cedarville appears to have their artillery ready to "gun" down their Northern opponents. It is not to be, however, as they proceed to drop twelve of their next nineteen games. At the season's end, they straighten out to cop the NCCAA area playoffs from Bethel College, ending at 14-12.

The team hits for a .317 average, but cannot seem to keep their opponents from averaging over six runs a game.

Individually there are several standouts. Senior Captain Wynn Gerber is best defenseman, and makes the All-District team. Fred Greetham leads the team in batting average and RBI's, as well as being voted MVP and making the first team All-District. Mike Ratzlaff breaks a school record with five home runs and is also on first team All-District, and first team All Area VI for NAIA.

1. This conference on the mound could mean a possible pitching change.
2. A view from behind home plate shows bat and ball about to meet.
3. A Jacket hitter connects on this pitch.
4. Catcher Wynn Gerber heads for the dugout.
5. The Jackets take time out to ask for Divine guidance before a game.
6. A Jacket baserunner safely slides into second base.
7. Baseball Team: FRONT ROW: Coach Callan, J. Luce, S. Uyenishi, W. Rowe, S. Hancock, D. Fullmer, F. Greetham, C. Fullmer, B. Baldwin, W. Gerber; BACK ROW: D. Cremean, D. Stewart, M. Devine, M. Ratzlaff, R. Floyd, K. Jones, R. Cagwin, C. Burnette, C. Searles, D. Hill, D. Coomes.

1. Coach Callan is deep in thought as he plots his team's next move.
2. Ron Floyd delivers a pitch to the plate.
3. A group of jubilant Jackets celebrate after a victory.
4. Mike Ratzlaff, Fred Greetham, and Wynn Gerber represent the Jackets on the All-NAIA District #22 Team.
5. Wes Rowe follows through after a healthy swing.
6. Randy Cagwin shows true determination as he releases his pitch.
7. Mike Ratzlaff receives a little coaching advice from Dan Coomes.

Jackettes Blaze 8-5 Record

The women's softball team firmly entrenches itself in the Cedarville sports program this year, pounding out an 8-5 record that sends several larger schools reeling in throes of defeat. Coach Kearney's squad takes four of their eight wins by scoring 10 or more runs in each game. With a young team headed by MVP Kim Gall and Batting Average Leader Sue Kulp, the Jackettes certainly are out to make a name for themselves in the coming seasons.

1. A close play at second for Debbie Selden.
2. Vicki Butler handles the "hot corner".
3. Softball Team: FRONT ROW: L. Donnelly, K. Weller, J. Ross, D. Selden, R. Crum, E. Brown, P. Hammond, S. Kulp, J. Priola; BACK ROW: C. Lancaster, M. Vail, C. Carey, B. Hobar, V. Butler, K. Gall, K. Murray, K. Green, Coach June Kearney, C. Napier.
4. Elaine Brown wonders where all the players are when it comes to gathering all the bats.
5. Eye contact is essential in slow pitch.
6. Coach Kearney senses a win for her squad

Distance Men Excel For Thinclads

The Cedarville thinclads establish another record-breaking season as their long distance and field events hold them through many meets. Brian Hull never ceases to create excitement with come-from-behind victories and with four school records to his credit: the mile, 2-mile, 3-mile, and steeplechase. Brian also journeys to Nationals where he places fourth in the steeplechase. Dale Shaw also competes in Nationals in the 3-mile event. Mark Peters ties Coach McGillivray's record in the pole vault as he has a good season. Cedarville loses several Seniors, such as all-around Warren Gifford and long-distance man Paul Budnik, but young talent appears to be plenteous for several seasons ahead.

1. After a job well done, Coach King heads to the bench for a rest.
2. While contemplating a good jump, Warren Gifford waves to the cameraman.
3. Dale Shaw sets a new record in the six mile.
4. After pulling a muscle in the race, Dale Shaw gets encouragement from the coach.
5. Bryan Smith loosens-up before a workout.
6. Track Team: FRONT ROW: R. Glidden, B. Henslin, B. Balais, B. Smith, D. Shaw, J. Hunter, P. Schmutzler, S. Anderson; SECOND ROW: M. Jackson, P. Budnik, B. Hull, W. Gifford, D. Rowe, A. Woodruff, T. Hutchison, M. Peters; BACK ROW: Coach Elvin King, T. Yater, S. Lones, M. Streitmatter, D. Rogers, J. Kauffman, W. Gifford, Coach John McGillivray.

1. Coach McGillivray figures things out for the pole vaulters.
2. Planting hard, Mark Peters stretches for the bar.
3. Sometimes Mark Peters has rope problems, but Scott Anderson manages this tieup.
4. Dave Rogers puts his whole body into it.
5. Brian Hull is tough, no matter how rough the going gets.
6. Joel Hunter will do anything to beat the opponent — maybe even "fly".
7. Stretching for every inch he can get, Bryan Smith attempts to overtake his opponent.
8. Tom Hutchison concentrates on the gun for the first leg of the mile relay.

Net Champs Again!

That Cedarville men's tennis team just keeps on winning . . . and winning . . . and winning! The "racquetters" are 18-3 this season, taking first in their own Invitational, at the MOC Tournament, and at the District Tournament (capturing all six top berths!).

Freshman Gary Gallian has a tough job in the No. 1 Singles position, but fulfills it more than adequately, compiling a 21-4 record for the season. And for the umpteenth time in a row, the squad traveled to Nationals representing NAIA District #22.

1. Dave Lynch (18-6), No. 5 Singles, approaches the net.
2. No. 2 Man Ken Erny (20-6) hits a backhand as he warms up prior to a match.
3. Coach Murdoch records another Cedarville win in the NAIA Dist #22 tourney.
4. Cedarville's No. 1 Singles tennis player, Gary Gallian (21-4), reaches back for something extra on his serve.
5. The two-handed backhand becomes a Gallian trademark in route to his Dist #22 Singles championship.
6. A powerful forehand helps Steve Stairs advance to the finals in the NAIA tournament.

1. Tennis Team: FRONT ROW: D. Lynch, K. Erny, S. Stairs, G. Gallian, W. Johnson, B. Fleming; BACK ROW: B. Williams, R. Medlock, L. Randall, C. Colas, T. Dowd, B. Humphrey, R. Michel, S. Swayze, D. Green, B. Medlock, Coach Murray Murdoch.

2. Steve Stairs (21-5) racks up another win at No. 3 Singles.

3. Lynch follows through after a deep backhand.

4. No. 4 Man Bruce Fleming (19-5) and Coach Murdoch discuss strategy prior to a key match.

5. No. 6 Man Wes Johnson (22-2) awaits his opponent's serve.

Netters' New Schedule A Success

The Jackettes tennis team switched this year from a fall schedule to a spring schedule, allowing for much better weather for the netters.

They lose three straight matches at the start of the season, but pick themselves up and sweep five of their final eight. At the state tournament they surprise many by finishing 22nd and show that they are here to stay.

Amy Ross has a difficult task at the No. 1 Singles position, meeting many outstanding opponents, but she fares well nonetheless. Laura Palmer is voted Most Improved Player as she comes on strong toward the end of the season.

1. Pairing up in doubles competition are Marilyn Nauta and Debbie Storch.

2. Amy Ross intently awaits her opponent's serve.

3. Storch and Nauta keep posted on the action.

4. Becky DeLancey follows through on a forehand shot.

5. Tennis Team: FRONT ROW: L. Palmer, B. DeLancey, J. Jacobitz, L. Penquite, S. Taylor; BACK ROW: Coach Pamela Diehl, M. Chipukits, D. Storch, E. Banks, M. Nauta, A. Ross.

Close Matches Prove Golfers' Downfall

Losing seasons are never ones to be thrilled about, but this year's team has many good moments to look back upon. Several matches are decided by only one stroke, victories are a putt or drive out of their grasp. Having a very young team means a better season next spring. All but Tim Reder will return. Freshman Dave Ellis proves to be a real addition to the squad as he ends up as first man and compiles the lowest stroke average.

1. Golf Team: FRONT ROW: G. Gromacki, D. Taylor; BACK ROW: P. Slusher, D. Ellis, Coach Al Monroe, D. Riddle, K. Rice.
2. Junior Pete Slusher finds the range with the right iron.
3. Coach Monroe uses just the proper amount of "English".
4. Keith Rice drops a putt for the Jackets.
5. Dave Riddle putts for his par.
6. Dan Taylor, a sophomore, helps considerably this season.
7. "Go in, or I'll put the Polish curse on you!" says Gary Gromacki.

Spring Weather Is Stimulant For Intramurals

With a very warm spring this year, competition is intense for intramural softball. As team play moves throughout the season and into the playoffs, Upper Williams and Cedar Park eventually square off in the championship. Upper Williams with its famed "Babe Ruth" slugger Tom Williams finally outlasts the Park in a close, well-fought battle of 11-10.

Other action included a weightlifting contest open to all with different weight classes represented. Rick Smith and Jeff Conklin win their classes and overall lift the most poundage with 485 lbs, and 490 lbs, respectively.

1. "You expect me to lift THAT thing!?" exclaims Rick Smith.

2. Terry Stanaway is enthusiastically greeted by his teammates as he returns to the bench after scoring a run.

3. Terry Wall demonstrates proper handeye coordination as his bat prepares to meet the ball.

4. Ron Bartley gives it that extra effort as he attempts to successfully lift the weight over his head.

5. "Yer-r-r out!" rules K.C. Jones, making his point very clear.

6. Keith Kirby rounds first and heads for second at the encouragement of Dave Wood.

Organizations Geared Toward The Future

A long-established organization on Cedarville's campus is Alpha Mu Chi, advised by Ma Printy. It provides advice and helpful hints to engaged women for making their marriage a success. Meetings include hosting special speakers, viewing newest bridal fashions, and planning weddings. The year's final get-together is a club shower.

Chi Theta Pi is a group for students interested in health professions. The variety of career opportunities for the Christian professional are many, and the organization seeks to make the students aware of them. The group spends much of its time planning for the annual Science Fair held on Cedar Day.

1. Each spring the S.C.G. bulletin board fills up with a multitude of wedding invitations.
2. Dr. Helmick shows the students how it's done!
3. Chi Theta Pi: BACK ROW: D. Johnson, K. Harding, K. Amstutz, Dr. Helmick; SECOND ROW: M. Nelson, B. Carroll, M. Nauta, D. Richardson; FRONT ROW: D. Radcliffe, D. Schweitzer, S. Paradiso, L. Overturf, J. Surso, A. Ross.
4. Kent Amstutz tries to blame the shot on a warped cue stick!
5. Everyone seems ready to chip in their advice as to how the game is played!
6. One of the requirements for Alpha Mu Chi's membership.
7. Alpha Mu Chi: Mrs. Printy (Adviser), W. Freeburger, K. Spencer, S. Chamblin, B. Begley.
8. With all eyes on her, Donna Radcliffe ponders her next move.
9. On Cedar Day Chi Theta Pi sponsors a booth to inform interested persons of their blood type.

Students Share Their Faith

Each week the Campus Evangelism members visit nearby college campuses to share their faith in Jesus Christ with fellow students. They go to Wright State, Wittenberg and Antioch, where they meet students from many walks of life and various religious backgrounds and beliefs.

The first Sunday of each month, students from Cedarville College have the opportunity to travel to Cincinnati to work in a rescue mission. Many people from the inner city come to the mission for food, shelter, and clothing. There, our students have the privilege of sharing their faith in Christ.

Cedarville College students have the privilege of ministering at the Bethesda Rehabilitation Center in Springfield. Bethesda is a Bible-based home for juvenile offenders. Here, our students have ample opportunity to witness to these kids - to set a Christian example before them and to share with them Jesus and His love.

1. Ross Livingood leafs through his Bible, finding verses to share.
2. Jim Carrington converses with one of the men at the Rescue Mission.
3. Bethesda Rehabilitation: D. Riddle, J. Riter, J. Zachary, M. Danube, I. Taylor.
4. Helping in the kitchen is one way of showing God's love, as Dave Riddle demonstrates.
5. Campus Evangelism: R. Young, S. Champlin, C. Miller, N. Crandall, K. Payne, D. Poole.
6. Dan Poole and Linda Ernst share their faith on Campus Evangelism.
7. Rescue Mission: M. Nauta, J. Carrington, D. Smith, J. Yhap, J. Dannenberg.
8. Preaching for the Rescue Mission is Don Smith.

A Time For Sharing Christ

Four Oaks, formally Happy Timers, is a Christian Service which gives students an opportunity to have camp-outs, activity times, and Bible studies with mentally retarded children. Sometimes students care for these youngsters during parent-teacher activities.

The Yellow Springs Riding Group gives students time to talk and possibly witness to others while walking their horses.

1. As the excitement of the game becomes more intense, the players draw a crowd of supporters.

2. Yellow Springs Riding Group: D. Denny, J. Arthur, K. Gray, T. Combs.

3. The van rides provide a chance for workers to learn and share with each other.

4. One of the animal friends isn't about to stop what he's doing to get his picture taken!

5. Four Oaks: FRONT ROW: D. Mast, S. Scoggins, P. Gilbert, D. Miller, C. Brown; BACK ROW: J. Prugh, J. Bubel.

6. A game of kickball is enjoyed by all.

7. Darlene Miller realizes that individual attention is very important in building friendships.

Ministering To Children

At Barney Children's Hospital volunteer groups talk with youngsters in their rooms and in the game room. Contacts with parents are often made in this Christian Service.

Children's church or junior church programs are held at two churches, First Reformed and Emmanuel Baptist. Students are involved in this program which meets every Sunday to conduct the singing or teaching.

1. Children's Church: K. Anderson, S. Shaw, D. Gawthrop.
2. Through handcraft projects Debbie Gierhart utilizes a means of reaching children.
3. A story of our Savior's love is read to eager listeners.
4. The children tell Melissa Shugars what they have learned.
5. Children's Hospital workers are Lisa Overturf and Vicki Burleson.
6. Chris Taylor teaches the children a new song.

Summer Is No Time To Quit

The summer brings with it many opportunities for Cedarville students to take an active role in Christian service and missions. Abundant Life, Summer Swordbearers, and The Master's Muppets travel the United States spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ; and, through the Missionary Internship Program, students assist missionaries in eighteen different parts of the country and the world.

1. Summer Swordbearers: FRONT ROW: D. DeNicola, C. Phillips; SECOND ROW: D. Green, B. Taylor, S. Miller, M. Bleeker, D. Ormsbee; BACK ROW: L. Kuschel, D. Stoner, P. Henry, C. Miller.

2. Scotland: A. Henning, T. Gibbons, K. Haga.

3. Israel: FRONT ROW: D. Radcliffe, B. Beikert, J. Smith; BACK ROW: M. Kessel, J. Vogel.

4. Australia: FRONT ROW: E. Roberts, M. Bentley, D. Jackson, K. Howell, B. Hobar, D. Jackson, Pastor Green, S. Ott; BACK ROW: M. Norne, D. Wickman, S. Brown, R. Eaton, K. Amstutz, S. Perry.

Understanding And Knowing God

James Murray Grier was born July 23, 1932 in Staten Island, New York. He came to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ at the age of 14. Following high school, he attended Brooklyn Polytechnical Institute for electrical engineering. Upon his father's urging, Mr. Grier transferred to Baptist Bible College Seminary in Johnson City, New York. After completing the five-year program for the Bachelor of Theology Degree, he still felt unprepared for the Lord's work. Therefore, he went on to Grace Theological Seminary and remained there for the next three years, receiving his Master's of Divinity at the end of the period.

James M. Grier was ordained in 1961 from his home church in Staten Island, New York. He pastored two churches — one in North Adams, Michigan, and the other in Taylor, Michigan. He then came to Cedarville College where he became employed as a fulltime teacher. He has recently completed his Master's of Theology which he obtained from Westminster Theological Seminary.

Jeremiah 9:23, 24 is the goal of Mr. Grier's life which says: "Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches: But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me." We who have been under the instruction of this man know this verse to be true in his life. God has given him an understanding and knowledge that he imparts to his students so that they, too, may know God exalt Him. Daily lectures consist of exhorting the students to a better understanding of the Creator of the universe. We come to know God and are stilled and awed by what has been revealed to us. We thank this teacher for bringing us to a realization of Who god is. For this reason, we of the yearbook staff dedicate the 1977 Miracle to Mr. James M. Grier.

It's A Miracle

The common phrase around the workroom in reference to the yearbook's completion is ... it's a miracle! And It's true — when one considers the hours spent in putting the yearbook together, it is a miracle when the final deadline is met. But we of the 1977 Miracle Staff give the glory to God in respect to the work accomplished — for this is His book, to be used for His purpose. It was He Who gave the ideas for the theme and how it was to be carried out; it was He Who saw that everything went according as He planned.

As we read this yearbook now, we the staff can sit back and reflect upon the message that is being conveyed.

We hope that you, too, can see that God is exalted in its pages.

1. Assistant Editor Lynn Beck crops the pictures that correspond to her witty captions.
2. The ladder is changed once again by Editor Carla Morley.
3. Sales of old yearbook pictures are always a success.
4. The door to the yearbook room is a friendly greeting to the staff.
5. Photographer Mark McDougal takes a break from his busy picture schedule to catch up on studies.
6. Miracle Staff: V. Pristera, P. Hayes, J. Acker, L. Beck, P. Arvay, C. Danielson, C. Morley, R. Wuebben, Charlie Miller, J. Harriman, Marlin Rayburn.

The End; Yet The Beginning

Graduation day is warm and sunny as the 1977 graduating Seniors march to receive their diplomas. Commencement exercises are held in the College Chapel on June 4. During the service, Miriam Maddox is honored for her 20 years of serving as director of the procession; honorary degrees are conferred upon Donald Leslie Tyler and Gerald V. Smelser; and Dr. James T. Jeremiah, President of Cedarville College, announces that the school year for 1977-78 is to be his last at the college.

Being a graduating Senior is the end of one's days at college — but it is the beginning of new experiences in the area that the Lord has chosen for each student. It is our hope as the Class of 1977 that we will truly live "For the Word of God and the Testimony of Jesus Christ".

1. Lydia West gives Barb Barrett a hearty handshake after the exercises.
2. The procession begins for the 1977 graduates.
3. Waiting for her name to be read, Margo Axiotis Barnett reflects the seriousness of the ceremony.
4. Miriam Maddox, in charge of graduation for the past twenty years, gives final instructions to this year's grads.
5. Rick Kline remembers to move his tassel.
6. Dwight Evens seems doubtful as to the truth of the story being told.
7. Receiving her diploma is Paulette Donal-
son.
8. The speakers of the day keep the graduates' attention.

1977 Graduates Comprise Largest Senior Class

The 1977 graduating Senior Class is the largest such class in the history of Cedarville College. Its members consist of approximately 245 men and women. In February, while Cedarville was buried in the snow of the worst winter in many years, thirty-three members of the Senior Class boarded a chartered bus and departed for Florida, the land of sun and fun. Originally choosing Toronto, Canada as their destination, the class later changed its plans to journey to Disney World and Daytona Beach.

One of the projects that the class used to raise money for the trip was the selling of family portraits through New Life Media, a photography studio staffed by Cedarville College alumni.

Rescue Kits were also essential in providing the means for the trip.

1. "You're kidding! The test has been cancelled?!" laments Merle Zeigler.

2. Marlin Cayton pouts: "But I want to play Cowboys and Indians!"

3. Impatient for her turkey, Debbie Biggs begins to nibble on her menu.

4. Pick your own caption:

a. Dan Riedel calls the masses to repentance.

b. "If I have to wear this silly robe, then why can't girls wear pants?"

c. "Is an 'A' in Fundamentals of Speech worth all this fuss?"

5. Drastic measures have been employed by the Senior Class Officers to insure graduation for all Seniors. The officers are: Becky Reid (Student Senate), Paulette Donalson (Treasurer), Wes Johnson (Chaplain), Val Pristera (Vice President), Barb Beikert (Secretary), and Phil Hayes (President). Not pictured is Bruce Keizer (Student Senate).

We know that God has revealed Himself in three ways: (1) by His Word, the Bible, which we at Cedarville are taught; (2) by His creation, which we in stillness view as an expression of the glory of God; and (3) by His Son, who Himself was perfect and whose humble and godly spirit showed us the way to Heaven. It was by His willing obedience to the Father's command that He submitted to death on the cross. This death was a substitute to take our place as a result of our sin. It is belief in the Person and the Work of the Savior that brings one into a saving relationship with God. We are no longer doomed to spend eternity in Hell.

Jesus' exaltation will come — and we as believers will be united with Him to exalt Him forever.

Father
Son
Spirit

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly EXALTED him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
